

The Social Analysis of Penalty Across Boundaries | Workshop Series

This workshop series aims to bring together a wide range of current work from around the world on aspects of penal politics, policies, practices and institutions.

We hope to continue to expand the scope for comparative analysis of penal questions, and to stimulate cross-regional collaboration and exchange between scholars north and south.

We hope thereby to build a mutually supportive community of researchers despite and because of their strikingly diverse situations.

All Welcome!

Our forthcoming speaker is:
Professor José A. Brandariz
University of A Coruña, Spain

“Winter is coming? Exploring the north/south divide in terms of penal climate”.

José A. Brandariz is an associate professor of criminal law and criminology at the University of A Coruna, Spain. He is an associate editor of the European Journal of Criminology and a former member of the executive board of the European Society of Criminology (2016-2019).

Register at <https://bit.ly/2Y9ZWWr>

Coordinated by Prof. Richard Sparks (SCCJR) and
Prof. Máximo Sozzo (UNL)

Tues 19th
October
4pm (BST)

