

Second International Conference
Punishment in Global Peripheries

6-8 July 2022

Oxford

Conference programme

Day 1. Wednesday 6 July

9.10 (British Summer Time) – Opening

9.30 BST – Session 1

- ❖ Mao-hong Lin (National Taipei University) – State Legitimacy and Prison Policy in Communist China
- ❖ Ignacio González-Sánchez (University of Girona) – Neoliberal penal policies in Spain
- ❖ Agustín Walker Martínez (University of Chile) – Chilean criminal policy of the last 30 years: historical and discursive reconstruction of an iatrogenic measure
- ❖ Discussant: Louise Brangan (University of Strathclyde)

11.15 BST – Coffee break

11.30 BST – Session 2

- ❖ Natacha Guala (National University of Litoral) – Women’s imprisonment in Argentina: from reformatory to warehouse prison. A study on institutional hybridization from the province of Santa Fe
- ❖ Mitsu Parikh (World of Legal Research) & Yashika Sachdeva (Gujarat National Law University) – Perpetrators in the Bloodline: seeking justice for ancestral rape
- ❖ Ariel Yap (Monash University) – Legacies of Trauma: Intergenerational harm resulting from Singapore detention without trial
- ❖ Discussant: Anastasia Chamberlen (University of Warwick)

13.15 BST – Lunch

14.45 BST – Session 3

- ❖ Adriana Romero-Sánchez (University of Wisconsin-Madison) – Building Peace, Making Justice: Punishment Meanings and Sensibilities in Colombia
- ❖ Valeria Vegh Weis (University of Buenos Aires) – The South within the South: Historical Justice for Indigenous Peoples in Argentina
- ❖ Rodrigo Moreno & Enxhi Kallogjeri (KU Leuven) – Confronting past abuses in the Global South. A review of failed transitional justice processes in Albania and Ecuador

Programa Delito y Sociedad
Universidad Nacional del Litoral

- ❖ Discussant: Michael Welch (Rutgers University/LSE)

16.30 BST – Coffee break

16.45 BST – Session 4

- ❖ Paul Hathazy (National University of Cordoba) – The transnational creation of “democratic” criminal justice reform policies for Latin America: Between US foreign aid, Central American transitions and UN bureaucrats (1984 – 1994)
 - ❖ Julieta Mira (Leuphana Universität Lüneburg) – The North-South and South-South travels of criminal procedure reform ideas against colonialism and for democracy: A phenomenon of (re)translation or a sounding board effect?
 - ❖ Discussant: Gonzalo Garcia-Campo (University of Oxford)
-

Day 2. Thursday, 7 July

9.00 BST – Session 5

- ❖ André Giamberardino (Federal University of Paraná) & Luiz Dal Santo (University of Oxford) – Mapping Brazilian incarceration: regional dynamics, trends, and differences
- ❖ Enshen Li (University of Queensland) – The Politics of Penal Control in Post-Millennium China
- ❖ Simone Santorso (University of Sussex) – Perspective on penal policy in overcrowding times: considerations on the Italian experience
- ❖ Discussant: Leonidas Cheliotis (LSE)

10.45 BST – Coffee break

11.00 BST – Session 6

- ❖ Luis G González Alvo (National University of Tucumán) & Jorge A Núñez (University of Buenos Aires) – Latin American prisons throughout history. From a region without penitentiaries to a mass imprisonment area
- ❖ Jyoti Dinesh Rao Bhosale (Jawaharlal Nehru University) – The Modern Prison was Born Elsewhere too: The British, American and the Indian Prison in Conversation
- ❖ Discussant: Dario Melossi (University of Bologna)

12.15 BST – Lunch

13.45 BST – Session 7

Programa Delito y Sociedad
Universidad Nacional del Litoral

- ❖ Daniela Rodriguez Gutierrez (University College Dublin) – Policy transfer and the Chilean youth justice reform: The key role of authoritarian networks
- ❖ Ely Aaronson (University of Haifa) – Transnational Racialization Processes across Core and Peripheral Contexts: The Case of Cannabis History
- ❖ Discussant: José A Brandariz (University of A Coruna)

15.00 BST – Coffee break

15.15 BST – Session 8

- ❖ Sofia Bordin Rolim (Getulio Vargas Foundation) – From drugs to vinegar: current trends in the institutional repression of collective action in contemporary Brazil
- ❖ Manuel Iturralde (University of los Andes) – From the streets to the prison yard: social protest and authoritarianism in Colombia
- ❖ Discussant: Roxana Pessoa Cavalcanti (University of Brighton)

16.30 BST – Coffee break

16.45 BST – Session 9

- ❖ Diana Peel (Centre for Basic Research, Kampala) – Last Man Hanging: Botswana and the Colonial Legacy of Capital Punishment
- ❖ Marya Al-Hindi (University of Edinburgh) – Settler Colonialism and Eugenics: the case of Israel's unchecked punitive power
- ❖ Leah Cleghorn (University of Trinidad and Tobago) – Exploring the penal system in the Anglophone Caribbean: Understanding the colonial archetypes of the penal system and the administration of justice in Trinidad and Tobago
- ❖ Discussant: Omar Khan (University of Oxford)

Day 3. Friday, 8 July

9.00 BST – Session 10

- ❖ Daniel Pascoe (City University of Hong Kong) – Life Imprisonment in Hong Kong
- ❖ Jakub Drápal (Charles University) The rise and difficulties of suspended prison sentences in Czechia
- ❖ Discussant: Julian Roberts (University of Oxford)

10.15 BST – Coffee break

Programa Delito y Sociedad
Universidad Nacional del Litoral

10.30 BST – Session 11

- ❖ Ramiro Gual (National University of Litoral) – Self-government or co-governance? Theoretical tools to think about the participation of inmates in the government of Latin American prisons
- ❖ Daskyes Yohanna Gulleng (University of Jos) – Prison control and Colonial Legacies: Implications on attacks and Jail Breaks in Nigeria
- ❖ Maximo Sozzo (National University of Litoral) – Beyond a difference of type? Thinking comparatively about prisons in the Global North and South
- ❖ Discussant: Julienne Weegels (University of Amsterdam)

12.15 BST – Lunch

13.45 BST – Session 12

- ❖ Martha Vargas Aguirre (University of Ottawa) – Managing ‘Unusual Flows’: humanitarianism, securitization, and symbolic criminalization of Venezuela Migrants in Ecuador
- ❖ Ismini-Nikoleta Mathioudaki (Scuola Normale Superiore) – Border surveillance as a post-colonialist practice: the case of Greece
- ❖ José A Brandariz (University of A Coruna), Giulia Fabini (University of Bologna), Cristina Fernández-Bessa (University of A Coruna), & Valeria Ferraris (University of Turin) – ‘Southernising’ border criminology
- ❖ Discussant: Ana Aliverti (University of Warwick)

15.30 BST – Coffee break

15.45 BST – Session 13

- ❖ Marcos Cesar Alvarez (University of Sao Paulo) – Crime and Punishment in Brazil: perspectives from the Global South
- ❖ Gail Super (University of Toronto) – Porous penalty and the myth of liberal punishment, lessons from South Africa
- ❖ Nahid Rahimpour Anaraki (Memorial University of Newfoundland) – Islam in Iranian Prisons: Understanding Faith Behind Bars
- ❖ Discussant: Sacha Darke (University of Westminster)

17.30 BST – Closure